A message from the President

Dear Alumni,

Spring Hill College was born in 1830 when a young Catholic bishop named Michael Portier brought teachers from his native France to 500 acres on a hill just outside Mobile, Alabama. Believing faith and knowledge went hand-in-hand, he envisioned an institution of higher learning rooted in faith, hope and justice. For 175 years, Spring Hill has been realizing Portier's dream by integrating spiritual and intellectual growth. This nurturing environment has influenced thousands of lives and helped generations of learners discover their own special gifts and talents.

Celebrating this milestone in Spring Hill College's history, we are reminded of our longstanding Jesuit traditions as we move forward with a vision for the future. As we continue to enhance our physical surroundings, I envision a future where we seek excellence in all things, shape leaders in the service of others, educate for the common good and integrate faith and culture. I also hope, through the National Alumni Association, to build a lifelong community of friendships.

As your president, I am committed to supporting programs that reconnect you to the College. May your association with the more than 10,000 other alumni of Spring Hill College provide you continuous opportunities for meaningful experiences and friendships. My wish is that this 175th Anniversary Edition of the Spring Hill College Alumni Directory will continue to assist you in keeping in touch with your alumni family!

Sincerely,

Gregory F. Lucey, S.J.
President

Fr. Lucey's Vision for the College on the Hill

Much like the rich soil that feeds the powerful oaks lining the campus, the unique Spring Hill learning experience has fed the body, mind and spirit of all who have entered its gates. Time and again, graduates say someone at Spring Hill "believed in me," "taught me to believe in myself," "took the opportunity to know me personally." These words are testament to the values that have guided the College throughout its history.

As we look to the new century, Spring Hill has an even greater opportunity to touch the lives of a new generation of learners. In an age filled with wondrous technology, we have the opportunity to participate in the transformation of the learning process. More importantly, in the spirit of St. Ignatius, founder of the Jesuit order, we have the opportunity to awaken minds and spirits to the pursuit of truth, the beauty of creation, the dignity of life, the demands of justice and the mystery of God's love. We have the opportunity to give students a moral compass to help them lead wisely and effectively in an increasingly complex world.

As Ignatius said more than 450 years ago, the education in life and doctrine students receive today will be beneficial to others, with the fruit expanding more widely every day. Educating students for life remains the distinguishing mark of a Spring Hill education as we seek to imbue students with values that transcend material goals-values that they will carry with them in their daily lives and works as they too touch the lives of that ever-widening circle. Much like the majestic trees that line the Avenue of the Oaks, these values have stood the test of time. However, for Spring Hill's timeless values to endure, we must seize the opportunities now before us so that new generations will leave our gates ready to shape the new century with vision, justice and compassion.

With a committed Board of Trustees, a dedicated faculty and staff, a solid upward enrollment trend and an alumni body engaged as never before, the time to take our distinctive mission to a new level has come. Spring Hill can be a premier, small, residential, liberal arts, Catholic and Jesuit college. I ask you to look at where we have been, where we are and where we are going and consider what your part can be in realizing the vision for the College on the Hill.

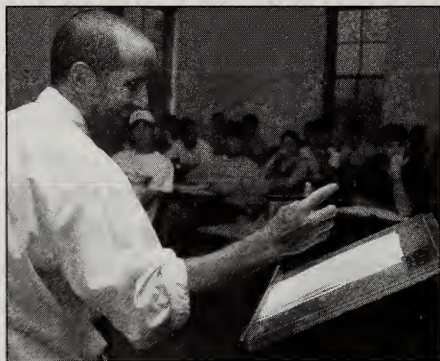

SHC Mission Statement

Rooted in its Catholic heritage and continuing the 450-year-old Jesuit tradition of educational excellence, Spring Hill College prepares students to become responsible leaders in service to others.

We offer our students a thorough preparation for professional excellence. More importantly, we strive to awaken mind and spirit to the pursuit of truth and to the ever-deepening appreciation of the beauty of creation, the dignity of life, the demands of justice and the mystery of God's love.

In our community of living and learning, we are committed to the Jesuit tradition of "cura personalis," that is, a care for the spiritual, social and intellectual growth of each individual.

Through informed dialogue with the world's cultures, religions and peoples, we promote solidarity with the entire human family.

And true to the Catholic and Biblical tradition, we nurture both the personal and social dimensions of faith, seeking to draw our students into a deeper and more vital relationship with God.

Spring Hill College Compelling Focus

The people of Spring Hill College, in community, work together to nurture learning for body, mind and spirit. We take the time and make the effort to teach and act with justice, with care and in the service of others.

About the Spring Hill College National Alumni Association

With 10,000 members in 17 regions of the United States and overseas, the Spring Hill College National Alumni Association provides Springhillians, past and present, with the opportunity to grow intellectually, spiritually, and socially while supporting the Spring Hill mission.

Local chapters, under alumni leadership, are supported by a national board of directors and assisted by a professional, campus-based staff. The purpose of the association is to preserve and strengthen the relationship between the College and its alumni by encouraging and enhancing alumni support of the College in all areas with special emphasis in development and student recruitment.

The National Alumni Association informs alumni of College-sponsored programs and activities around the country. Such programs include regional chapter events including Mardi Gras parties, Masses, and student receptions; fundraising events to support student scholarships; updating the College's alumni database; supporting an online career network; and recognizing alumni and non-alumni for their community service through the awards program.

In addition to these various programs, the National Alumni Association offers many products and services available exclusively to our alumni. Alumni can display their Badger pride through the use of a Spring Hill College MBNA credit card, by wearing an official College watch featuring the seal of the College, or participating in one of many Campus Abroad travel packages offered throughout the year.

Alumni Awards Program

Spring Hill College presents several honors annually to outstanding alumni and non-alumni who, through various acts and achievements, have shown their commitment to Spring Hill College and their communities.
